1. Chinese who recently have entered the Philippines illegally through Jolo in the Sulu Archipelago are known to have traveled from Hong Kong to Sandakan, from where they have entered the Philippines at Jolo, as crew members of vessels operated by the Jardine-Matheson Shipping Company. The vessels on which these Chinese have traveled between Hong Kong, Sandakan, and Jolo are known to have included the HAN SHENG and the HSIAO SHENG.<sup>1</sup>
2. The Chinese usually bribe various officers of these vessels to permit them to sail as crew members. On reaching Jolo, they disembark and proceed to various areas of the Philippines.
